Enjoy club benefits and facilities

We partner with Corporate Traveller to provide you with significant discounts on airline lounge memberships and joining fees, with potential tax benefits too! *

How does it work?

Receive discounted Qantas airline lounge memberships through our partnership with Corporate Traveller, so you can travel in comfort for less

Use your discounted airline lounge memberships for business and personal travel

We can salary package the cost of your airline lounge memberships if you travel for work purposes.

Things you should know

You can only salary package airline lounge memberships for yourself, not for friends or family members

A Corporate Traveller booking fee of $27.50 is applied to membership fees and renewals

For more savings, claim the cost of your airline lounge memberships tax-free when you travel for work at least once in an FBT year

If you only undertake personal travel, you can take advantage of the membership discounts only

If you have purchased an airline lounge membership with Qantas within the last FBT year, you may be eligible to claim the membership tax-free with a copy of your tax invoice/receipt.
